Sincere and heartfelt thanks to all for your prayers, Masses and messages of sympathy for my sister Bernadette. Your support and kindness were deeply appreciated both by myself and the family. Thank you. Sr. Philomena

Next Friday is the First Friday when the parish team will be visiting the sick and housebound. If you know of anyone who may not be on our list, please let us know.

10.30 a.m. Mass this Sunday sees a commissioning for those volunteers who wish to be part of the new "Sacred Hearts Visitation Group," a group dedicated to visiting those who are housebound and living alone. We thank them sincerely for giving of their time in this very important outreach.

Congratulations and best wishes to those children who were Baptised into the Christian community recently, to their parents, godparents and family: Aoife Finn, St John's Drive; Callum Caswell-Brophy, Booth Road and Charlie Williams, Hazelwood Crescent.

The Lighter Side !

A man went into a bar in a high rise. He saw another man take a pill, take a drink, walk to the window and jump out. He flew around for a minute and zipped back into the bar. As the amazed newcomer watched, the man repeated this twice more. Finally the man asked if he could have a pill. The flier said it was his last one. The man offered five hundred Euros to no avail, so he made a final offer of a thousand euro. The man said that it was all he had on him. The flier reluctantly gave in, took the cash, surrendered the pill, and turned back to the bar. The man took the pill, took a drink, went to the window, and jumped out only to fall to the ground with catastrophic injuries. The bartender walked over to the flier at the bar and, wiping a glass, said, "You sure are mean when you're drunk, Superman."
